

CONNOISSEURS' GUIDE TO CALIFORNIA WINE

August 2017

2016 Flora Springs Sauvignon Blanc Napa Valley

92 Points

“...this precise, very keenly focused youngster needs no more than a few moments of airing before showing itself to be a Sauvignon Blanc of considerable layering and depth, and its aromatic teases are an enticing prelude to a refined and wonderfully well-balanced wine on the palate. It is as lively as it is polished and tastes of melons, minerals, citrus and touches of fresh grass, and it exhibits altogether remarkable staying power and length. It is delicious right now, but experience teaches that serious Sauvignon Blanc can age famously for years, and this is one to bet on with abandon.”
