

2021
SOLILOQUY
NAPA VALLEY

90
POINTS

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

90
POINTS

“Distinctive and fragrant, with floral notes and tropical accents, along with a spicy, musky note that adds complexity to the core of pear, guava and passionfruit...”

Wine Spectator

91
POINTS

“Aromas of fresh pineapple, grapefruit and crushed peach...with lemony acidity and rounded stone fruit coming through. Nice texture and weight.”

JAMES SUCKLING.COM

91
POINTS

“...a consistently solid wine and year after year is worth seeking out.”

 IntoWine

“...stunning in its singularity...with floral aromatics and a lush texture that wraps around a core of taut acidity and citrusy freshness.”

“...this radiant white is sheer delight, with alluring, heady aromas and a round, elegant mouthfeel that reveals layers of citrus, tropical fruit, jasmine, and honeysuckle.”

departures

“...this 2021 bottle...might be the best one I’ve ever had.”
