“For those who like a richer, riper style of savvy, this wine will do the trick. With a tantalizing floral nose of honeysuckle and pear blossom, this wine glides across the palate with rich creamy notes of lemon brulee, pear, and marshmallow - with just the right amount of lemon-lime acid to create a refreshing finish. 80% sauvignon and 10% each of chardonnay and malvasia. Aged 7 months in oak.”

Wine Spectator

“Complex and aromatic, with notes of honeysuckle, lemon blossom and makrut lime leaf. There’s also a refreshing core of acidity, offering details of yuzu and lemon sherbet, plus a touch of sliced apple and apple skin on the finish. Sauvignon Blanc, Malvasia and Chardonnay. Drink now. 605 cases made.”

WINE ADVOCATE

“A blend of 80% Sauvignon Blanc, 10% Chardonnay and 10% Malvasia, all aged in used oak, the 2022 Soliloquy features attractive aromas of grapefruit and tangerine, plus hints of melon and fig. It’s medium-bodied but plum and generous, with a long, silky finish.”

“A blend of Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay and Malvasia from the estate Crossroads Vineyard, this wine delivers fruit-centered aromatics but delivers on savory character. Aromas of cut grapefruit, ripe peach and crushed chalk lean into a more savory and mineral-driven palate. Petrichor notes, lemon curd, followed by cut grasses, savory pollen notes and a deep ripe stone fruit character.”
